Scholarship awards are contingent upon acceptance to a chosen program at Auguste Escoffier School of Culinary Arts and are awarded in the form of a tuition credit. All tuition scholarships are awarded toward a certificate program. Upon accepting the scholarship, the winner must begin his or her studies in the summer or fall quarter following high school graduation. Winners must maintain a 2.5 GPA or higher during his or her studies; a GPA of less than 2.5 will result in the loss of scholarship. In the event that the scholarship recipient’s education is terminated, either by the school or by the student, the scholarship becomes null and void. Tuition scholarships are not redeemable for cash. The tuition scholarship covers academic tuition and may not be applied against fees, housing, living expenses, or program supplies and may not be transferred between affiliate schools. Scholarship recipients must not interrupt their studies; interruption of studies will result in the loss of the scholarship.

All videos will be posted on the Auguste Escoffier School of Culinary Arts - Culinary Competition Facebook page for voting starting February 1, 2015. By submitting your video you allow Auguste Escoffier School of Culinary Arts to upload content. Submission of your video constitutes permission to the Auguste Escoffier School of Culinary Arts to upload and display content on the Culinary Competition Facebook event page.

Students are encouraged to have friends, family, employers to vote/ “Like” their video. Final determination of scholarship awards will be made by a committee comprised of chef instructors and school staff, taking into consideration the following (in order of priority):

- Preparation, cooking and plating skills demonstrated in the video
- Content of the essay
- Number of votes per entry on Facebook

All winners will be notified by April 30, 2015
